DIFFERENTLY OPEN

Northlands Golf Course opened for fully public play in 1997 and was named by Golf Digest as Runner-Up for Best New Course in Canada in 1998. Sculpted from a 100 year old mountainside forest, Northlands was designed by prolific Canadian golf architect Les Furber, renowned for his work on mountainside courses. Located in North Vancouver, B.C. (only 20 minutes from downtown Vancouver), Northlands boasts four sets of tees which welcomes golfers of all abilities. Experience one of British Columbia's best and most stunning public golf courses where you will discover remarkable views, amazing wildlife, and outstanding course conditions year round.
