OPERATING AS USUAL

One of the Lower Mainland's signature seasonal events, the Vancouver Christmas Market, takes place at Jack Poole Plaza (at the Olympic Cauldron). The city's authentic German market amplifies its festive offerings with more than 80 huts stuffed with sweets, treats, and treasures, coupled with large-scale activities and live entertainment. Over the past 10 years, the Vancouver Christmas Market has become one of the city's most treasured holiday traditions. Each year families, couples, and friends are invited to savour the abundance of authentic German-inspired sights, sounds, and flavours.
